CREEPY CLASSICS COME ALIVE IN FLORIDA ORCHESTRA'S HAUNTED HALLS FAMILY CONCERT

ST. PETERSBURG, FL – Get ready for music that's to die for. The Florida Orchestra's Haunted Halls Halloween-themed family concert is back! Join us Sunday, Oct. 26, at 2 pm at the Mahaffey Theater for frightfully fun tunes for goblins of all ages.

What a boo-tiful day!
Conductor Daniel Black leads the full orchestra — in full costume — through ghostly grooves such as:

- Theme from Ghostbusters
- Music from Star Wars
- Michael Jackson's Thriller
- Grieg's spooky In the Hall of the Mountain King
- And more musical tricks and treats.

Costumes encouraged! Whether you're a witch, a werewolf, or Baby Yoda, strut your spooky style.

Creep in early for:

- Halloween-themed music games
- The Instrument Graveyard – you bring the instruments alive!
- Collect hand stamps for a sweet treat after the concert.

Get your tickets now before they vanish.

About The Florida Orchestra
The Florida Orchestra's mission is to INSPIRE | EDUCATE | UNITE to build community through the power of music. Celebrating our 58th season in 2025-26, The Florida Orchestra is the largest professional orchestra in the state and the only arts organization that bridges the bay. TFO employs 70 full-time professional musicians and conductors, under the artistic leadership of internationally acclaimed Music Director Michael Francis. Each season, the orchestra performs more than 100 concerts in venues throughout Tampa Bay, including a wide range of classical, popular, film and family-friendly music, as well as performances with global stars such as Wicked star Cynthia Erivo. Beyond the concert halls, TFO programs bring the transformative power of music to schools, youth and senior centers, to underserved areas and to those who would not have such opportunities otherwise. Through concerts and education/community programs combined, TFO serves more than 150,000 residents each year – nearly half through free or low-cost programs. We put instruments in the hands of children, offer inspiration and joy to all ages and stages, comfort for those who most need it, and bring our community together. For tickets and information:
