Alec Brown is a performer, teacher, and artistic administrator in the Tampa Bay region. Notable stage productions include Sweeney Todd (Opera Tampa), HMS Pinafore (Madison Savoyards), Hunchback of Notre Dame (Capital City Theatre) and Dead Man Walking (Dayton Performing Arts Alliance). He has also been a featured vocalist in concerts with companies including The Florida Orchestra, St. Petersburg Opera Company, The Bach Society of Dayton and The Madison Chamber Orchestra. Alec has enjoyed regular engagements with Opera Tampa, as an Opera Tampa Singer, performing in their original productions, outreach concerts and recitals. Recently, Alec has collaborated with local composer Tom Sivak on the world premieres of The Last Hurdy Gurdy and Love V. Death. Alec Brown is originally from Columbus, Ohio and received his Bachelor of Music in Vocal Performance from The University of Dayton.